

Correct Words

Can you write the missing words to finish the sentences?

The isle/aisle of Madagascar can be found off the coast of southern Africa.

Albert was nervous as he read allowed/aloud in front of the whole school.

The coffee and tea were in isle/aisle seven of the supermarket.

The Bishop stood at the altar/alter and prayed solemnly.

Jess was worried she wouldn't be allowed/aloud to go on the school trip.

Tired and weary, the explorers began their assent/ascent to the summit.

"We may have to altar/alter our holiday plans," said Kira.

"I can't walk any father/farther!" she said as they turned the corner.

She agreed and nodded in assent/ascent.

"No, I am your father/farther," said Darth Vader.